

SMRJ Government College, Siwani (Bhiwani)

(Affiliated to Chaudhary Bansi Lal University, Bhiwani)

Session: 2024-25

Department of Sociology

(Master of Arts)

Programme Outcomes (POs):

After competing M.A. Sociology, students will be able to realize the following outcomes

1. The programme provides initial knowledge about society and social life.
2. Students will be able to interpretation of social interaction.
3. Students will be able to become a social and useful member of society.
4. Students will be able to assimilate the social norms and values.

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs):

After competing M.A. Sociology, a student shall be able to achieve the following outcomes

1. The students would able to understand the need of discipline in different phases of development of society.
2. The program would provide the critical reasoning, understanding and analysis of key issues and concepts in the discipline.
3. The students would be able to understand the various theoretical alternatives for the sociological interpretation in understanding the sociological issues.
4. The students would be able to have application of methodological tools in understanding the empirical verification which in turn help in formulating the social planning and policies.
5. The students would be able to understand societies, human behavior and various social problems.

Course Name: Introduction to Sociology

Course Code: 16SOC21C1

Semester: First

Course Outcomes (COs): After completion of the course:

1. Students are expected to understanding the nature and scope of sociology.
2. Students become familiar with different concepts.
3. Students will learn the application of concepts and relationship.
4. Students are supposed to gain knowledge about perspectives and its applicability.

Course Name: Classical Sociological Thinkers

Course Code: 16SOC21C2

Semester: First

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Students are made to learn the origin of theoretical ideas in understanding society.
2. Students will get knowledge about the framework of classical thinkers.
3. Students are made to understand the sociological perspective.
4. Students are supposed to learn the relevance of understanding classical thinkers in modern society.

Course Name: Indian Society: Structure & Change

Course Code: -16SOC21C3

Semester: First

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Students would know about the dimensions of the structure of society.
2. It will help the students to understand how Indian society is stratified.
3. The students will get familiar with the social processes that bring change in the society.
4. The students will be able to understand the nature of the issues confronting society.

Course Name: Research Methods and Techniques – I

Course Code: 16SOC21C4

Semester: First

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would be able to explain the fundamentals of various methods and techniques of data collection.
2. The students would be able to differentiate between qualitative and quantitative research.
3. The students would be able to develop a critical outlook at the existing perspectives.
4. The students would be able to evolve conceptual clarity, which can lead them in their future research.

Course Name: Social Anthropology

Course Code: 16SOC21C5

Semester: First

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would be learn about social anthropology as a discipline.
2. The students would be acquainted with pioneers of social anthropology.
3. The student would get an idea of different social institutions.
4. The students would learn about tribes, social structure and tribal society.

Course Name: Classical Sociological Theories

Course Code: 16SOC22C1

Semester: Second

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would learn the origin and context of emergence of sociology as a discipline.
2. The students would be acquainted with the pioneers of sociology and their perspectives.
3. The students would get an idea of philosophical and methodological tradition of classical sociologists.
4. Students would be able to learn critical understanding of sociology.

Course Name: Social Processes and Social Change

Course Code: 16SOC22C2

Semester: Second

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Students supposed to understand socialization, stratification, mobility and change.
2. Students will learn various perspectives in understanding social processes.
3. Course enhance the conceptual clarification and characteristic of social processes.
4. Course will enhance knowledge about meaning, theories and forces of social change.

Course Name: Perspectives to Understand Indian Society

Course Code: 16SOC22C3

Semester: Second

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Students would understand various perspectives to analyse Indian society.
2. It would familiarize students to the changes taking place in Caste System.
3. Students will understand the diversification of kinship practices throughout India.
4. It would help the students to analyse the role played by different classes in social transformation of society.

Course Name: Research Methods & Techniques –II

Course Code: 16SOC22C4

Semester: Second

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would be able to use of statistics in the analysis of data and report writing.
2. The students would be able to understand the significance of computer in social research.
3. The students may also be familiarized with published source material especially the census reports.
4. The students would be able to collect primary as well as secondary data and exposure to the field work.

Course Name: Social Psychology

Course Code: 16SOC22D1

Semester: Second

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would learn the importance of social psychology as a discipline.
2. The students would be acquainted with basic concepts.
3. The students would get knowledge about theories of social psychology.
4. The students would learn the cultural understanding of social psychology.

Course Name: Contemporary Sociological Theories

Course Code: 17SOC23C1

Semester: Third

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would identify a vast variety of perspectives for the socio-cultural phenomenon in the diversified social settings.
2. The post structural, functional, Marxist perspectives would enhance the outlook of sociological understanding.
3. The students would be able to redefine science with the help of micro sociological perspectives.
4. The students would be able to learn the future advances in sociological theory.

Course Name: Rural Sociology

Course Code: 17SOC23C2

Semester: Third

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Students impart sociological skill to reconstruct rural institution and agrarian class structure.
2. Students would be able to understand trends of change in rural society.
3. Students would be able to analyze the impact of green revolution in rural society.
4. Students would be able to critically examine new panchayati raj and women empowerment.

Course Name: Sociology of Population Studies

Course Code: 17SOC23C3

Semester: Third

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Population data from various sources with help students to interpret population situation.
2. Population theories will help students to find out the factors affecting population.
3. It will help students to understand the size, growth and distribution of Indian population.
4. Students would be able to know, how fertility, mortality and migration affect population.

Course Name: Sociology of Kinship, Marriage & Family

Course Code: 17SOC23DB3

Semester: Third

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would learn the origin and context of kinship, marriage and family.
2. The students would learn about the kinship system prevailing in society.
3. The students would learn about changes taking place in social structure.
4. The students would learn about the social impact of the changes taking place in institutions.

Course Name: Sociology of Mass Communication and Popular Culture

Course Code: 17SOC23DA1

Semester: Third

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Student will be familiar with the tools of mass communication.
2. Course will enhance sociological orientation in understanding mass communication and popular culture.
3. Students are requested to learn the application of theoretical approaches.
4. Students will enhance knowledge about impact of mass communication & popular culture.

Course Name: Social Stratification and Mobility

Course Code: 17SOC24C1

Semester: Fourth

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Students would learn the existence of social stratification in society.
2. Students would be able to understand about forms of stratification in context to different societies.
3. Students are expected to learn the application of theories in the analysis of different social structures.
4. Students are made to learn the role of social mobility in relation to social change.

Course Name: Rural Development and Change

Course Code: 17SOC24C2

Semester: Fourth

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. Students would be able to learn specified knowledge of rural society in sociological perspective.
2. Students are expected to have understanding of sociological appraisal of rural development and change.
3. Students would be able to examine the critical appraisal of rural development programmes.
4. Students also expected to have understanding about new panchayati raj institutions and women empowerment.

Course Name: Urban Sociology

Course Code: 17SOC24C3

Semester: Fourth

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The student would learn origin and context of urban sociology as a discipline.
2. The student would understand and acquaint with theories of city.
3. The student would get the knowledge about urban social structure.
4. The student would learn about the growth of city and its social impact and consequences.

Course Name: Social Problems in India

Course Code: 17SOC24DA1

Semester: Fourth

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. The students would learn about emergence of social problems as a discipline.
2. The students would be acquainted with the theories of social problems.
3. The students would be acquainted with dimensions of social problems in India.
4. The students would learn about the legislations related with social problems.

Course Name: Sociology of Environment

Course Code: 17SOC24DB1

Semester: Fourth

Course Outcomes: After completion of the course:

1. It will enhance students' understanding of environment and its relation with society.
2. Students would know how theoretical framework helps in understanding environmental issues.
3. It will enable students to find out development issues and how environment is affected by them.
4. Students would be able to identify development issues and how legislation and NGO's play important role in the protection of environment.

(Mrs. Geeta Rani)

Head of the Department

(Prof. Dr. Satyapal Singh)

Principal